STM/BOM BIDDING PRAYERS: FOURTH WEEK OF EASTERTIDE

III. Reader: We pray that the suffering will abide in Hope and fortitude, and obtain justice and mercy.

- For those, both here and abroad who, by professing our Catholic Faith, and the Natural Law, face threats to life, livelihood and liberty; as seemingly all societies' sense of truth, goodness and beauty declines ⌛

VI Reader: We join our intercessions with Edmund of Abingdon, Thomas More, John Henry Newman, and Thomas the Apostle with Alphonsa of Kerala, saying:

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy; hail our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve! To thee do we send up our sighs; mourning and weeping in this vale of tears!
Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus! O Clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V: Pray for us, O holy mother of God. R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Priest: Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask:
help us to ask only what accords with thy will; and those good things which we dare not,
or in our blindness cannot ask; grant us for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

or: Lord, hear the prayers of thy people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

or: We beseech thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon thy people; that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore, both in body and soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
