VI Reader: With Alphonsa of Kerala, Edmund of Abingdon, John Henry Newman, Thomas the Apostle and Thomas More, we venerate the Queen of all Creation, saying:

Hail, Holy Queen[1], Mother of Mercy; hail our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve! To thee do we send up our sighs; mourning and weeping in this vale of tears!
Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus! O Clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V: Pray for us, O holy mother of God. R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Priest: Most merciful Father, pour out thy Spirit upon all flesh, our communities of faith, and families, granting us thereby renewed vision of thy glory; restored obedience to thy doctrine; revived experience of thy power; and rekindled consecration to thy service;
though, with and in thine only-begotten Son, our Lord and King of all Creation. Amen.
