STM/BOM BIDDING PRAYERS: FIFTH WEEK OF EASTERTIDE

Priest: Let us pray for the Church and the world, the suffering and departed, and lastly, our own petitions.

I. Reader: We pray that the Church will grow in grace, know the Faith and show the risen Christ to all.

- For [read names] who [Sat: tomorrow will receive Sun: today received] their first holy Communion ⌛
- Weekdays: Diocesan Petition(s) from Ordo
- Nod to Organist if present otherwise say: Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

II. Reader: We pray that the world will repent of sin, return to virtue and respect the natural order.

- For Parliament, at the request of MP Nigel Evans, to 'look at ways of protecting those with Down's syndrome and ensuring that they will not be simply screened out.' ⌛
- For health care providers to treat every patient, at all stages of life, as a person, according to principles of natural justice ⌛
- Nod to Organist if present; otherwise say: Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

III. Reader: We pray that the suffering will abide in Hope and fortitude, and obtain justice and mercy.

- For those who are ill, whose names we know, especially [read names from either Parish or Ordinariate list]

V. Reader: We pray that we will abide in faithful, fraternal Charity, now making our own petitions ⌛ ⌛ (please allow adequate time to pray)

- Nod to Organist if present; otherwise say: Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

VI Reader: We join our intercessions with Edmund of Abingdon, Thomas More, John Henry Newman, and Thomas the Apostle with Alphonsa of Kerala, saying:

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy; hail our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve! To thee do we send up our sighs; mourning and weeping in this vale of tears!
Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus! O Clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V: Pray for us, O holy mother of God. R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Priest: Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask:
help us to ask only what accords with thy will; and those good things which we dare not,
or in our blindness cannot ask; grant us for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

or: Most merciful Father, pour out thy Spirit upon this [Parish|Mission|Pastoral Area], granting us thereby renewed vision of thy glory; revived experience of thy power; restored adherence to thy doctrine; and rekindled consecration to thy service, that charity may grow among us and thy kingdom come, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
