IFORD CATHOLIC COMMUNITY BIDDING PRAYERS: TRINITY SUNDAY

Priest: In Communion, by the Spirit, with the Most Holy Trinity, let us pray for the Church and the world, the suffering and departed and lastly, our own petitions.

I. Reader: We pray that the Church will grow in grace, know the Faith and show the risen Christ to all.

- Nod to Organist if present; otherwise say: Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

III. Reader: We pray that the suffering will abide in Hope and fortitude, and obtain justice and mercy.

- For those who nurture disordered desire, or excuse it in others through misplaced compassion, thus maiming their minds, made for knowing the truth, risking the loss of the whole of their soul ⌛

VI Reader: With Alphonsa of Kerala, Edmund of Abingdon, John Henry Newman, Thomas the Apostle and Thomas More, we venerate our Queen of the Angels and May, saying:

Hail, Holy Queen[1], Mother of Mercy; hail our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve! To thee do we send up our sighs; mourning and weeping in this vale of tears!
Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus! O Clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V: Pray for us, O holy mother of God. R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Priest: Most merciful Father, pour out thy Spirit upon this [Congregation here present or Pastoral Area], granting us thereby renewed vision of thy glory; restored obedience to thy doctrine;
revived experience of thy power; and rekindled consecration to thy service, that divine Charity, binding thee to the only-begotten, may likewise unite us, begotten by grace, and hasten the coming of Christ's peaceable kingdom. Amen.
