VI Reader: With Alphonsa of Kerala, Edmund of Abingdon, John Henry Newman, Thomas the Apostle and Thomas More, we venerate the Queen of all Creation, saying:

Hail, Holy Queen[1], Mother of Mercy; hail our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve! To thee do we send up our sighs; mourning and weeping in this vale of tears! Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus! O Clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V: Pray for us, O holy mother of God. R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Priest: Let us pray. Almighty God, pour out upon us the Spirit of adoption, whereby we call you Father, granting us thereby renewed vision of your glory; restored obedience to your doctrine; revived experience of your power; and rekindled consecration to your service; all for the sake of your only-begotten Son: our Lord, our Saviour, and our King. Amen.
