Reader: We join our prayers in intercession with our local patrons, Edmund of Abingdon, Thomas the Apostle, Thomas More, John Henry Newman and Alphonsa of Kerala, saying:

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy; hail our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve! To thee do we send up our sighs; mourning and weeping in this vale of tears!
Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus! O Clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V: Pray for us, O holy mother of God.
R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Priest: Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask: help us to ask only what accords with thy will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our blindness cannot ask;
grant us for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
(or this:) Lord, hear the prayers of thy people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
